

REDUCED SCHOOL DAY FOR SECOND SEMESTER GRADUATING SENIORS

This application must be in writing and be signed by his parents or legal guardian.

The application must be verified by the counseling department before it receives administrative consideration. The counselor will verify that a student has enough units to his credit to be able to graduate without full-time attendance.

Students in this program will retain the rights, privileges and obligations of full-time students, e.g., dances, games, etc.

Exceptions: Students in this program must provide their own transportation to and from school.

_____ Classes must be taken consecutively.

Students in this program must leave the campus at the end of their school day unless granted special permission by the administration to remain.

Athletic eligibility for students in this program is dictated by CIF. "A student must be taking and passing 20 semester periods of work" (four courses). Students in this program must not be on the campus until after the end of the regular school day for the purposes of participating in athletics.
