All facilities use fees include utility costs, paper products, consumables, janitorial and/or staff member time, which is subject to a minimum of two-hour custodial time, per CSEA contract for call-backs. If you require opening and closing and your event is more than two hours, you will be charged two-hours to open and two hours to close (note: you may utilize the services of the custodian during those times). All the information and/or rates are subject to change with Board of Education approval. Additional costs may be incurred for field usage if there is garbage pick-up and removal.

If use is at multiple sites and is a seasonal use, the fee will be $100 per site. If use is at one site and is seasonal use the fee is $200. * Note: Seasonal use does not include special use for clinics, tournaments or use of other areas such as classrooms. Organizations who have a Seasonal Use Facilities Permit who wish to use the facility for other than games and practices must complete an additional use form and pay an additional fee.
